What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level, and poor market conditions could impact our capacity to pay you.

Be aware of currency risk. If you receive payments in a currency different to that of your home jurisdiction, the final return you will get will depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies.

This risk is not considered in the risk indicator shown. If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment. This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

The following data are deemed material for this fund, and are not (adequately) reflected by the indicator:

- A derivative counterparty may fail to fulfil its obligations which could result in a loss. Counterparty risk is reduced via the exchange of collateral.
- The fund invests in assets that could become less liquid in certain market conditions, which could have a significant impact on the value of these assets.
- For more details about portfolio risks, see Section 4. "Risk Considerations" of the prospectus.

Performance Scenarios

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

What happens if Robeco Institutional Asset Management B.V. is unable to pay out?

The fund's assets are held separately from Robeco Institutional Asset Management B.V. (the "Manager"). A pay-out of the fund's assets is thus not affected by the financial position or potential default of the Manager. The financial instruments in the portfolio of the fund are placed in custody with J.P. Morgan SE (the "Depository"). The fund runs the risk that its assets placed in custody may be lost as a result of the liquidation, insolvency, bankruptcy, negligence of, or fraudulent activities by, the Depository. In that case the fund may suffer a financial loss. However this risk is mitigated to some extent as the Depository is required by law to keep the fund's assets separate from its own assets. An investor compensation or guarantee scheme is not applicable in case of such financial loss.
